

COMMUNICATIONS

The communication committee of the parish is responsible for the design and production and dissemination of all information media in the Church.

The committee carries out the following works and any others assigned by the parish:-

Bulletin production/Visual display unit management/Management of parish notice boards/Management of parish new media initiatives and online presence/Management of the parish periodic magazine/Publicity for parish programs/Production of all printed items in the parish/Approval of all print media, publicity items to be used by any groups/Individuals within the church.

Who We Need?

Professionals or people with skills or interest in any of the following areas-

Journalists, PR professionals, Publicists, Writers, Graphic designers and Artists, Web designers, Web masters, Database managers, Social media gurus, Typists, Power point users, Projector operators, and really anyone who is willing to learn and work.

Meetings:-Sundays after 10:00am Mass.